LLOYD GEORGE STILL FIRM ON IRISH POLICY

Refuses Release Of MacSwiney From Prison.

MAYOR STILL ALIVE

Premier Outlines Policy On Irish Situation In Statement.

London, Sept. 8.—(10 p. m.)—The following bulletin on the condition of Lord Mayor MacSwiney of Cork was just issued at Brixton jail:

"Lord Mayor MacSwiney has suddenly become much weaker. The doctors are most anxious. Relatives have been forbidden to attempt to converse with the patient."

London, Sept. 8.—Terence MacSwiney, Lord Mayor of Cork, who has been on a hunger strike for 24 days was in a comatose condition in Brixton jail and scarcely recognizable to his wife Mariel, when she visited him this morning.

Premier Lloyd George in an interview given to the Daily News indicated that he will insist that "MacSwiney and the other Irish hunger strikers be kept behind the bars."

"The Cork lord mayor was engaged in a general conspiracy which resulted in the death of 50 policemen and attempted assassination of 78 others, and the government certainly has a duty to perform towards its police force," the premier was quoted as saying.

"It is not right to compare MacSwiney and the other Irish hunger strikers to the suffragettes who never killed any one. If we let them out you cannot govern Ireland. Who is to govern Ireland if not the British Empire? I certainly should not be responsible for the creation of an independent republic in Ireland. If we had had that during the late war, the British empire might have been destroyed by Germany's submarine war. It was a tough go as it was."

The premier declared that dominion home rule for Ireland involved a separate Irish army and navy and also a financial question in the matter of payment for the war.

Referring to a statement by Arthur Griffith acting president of the Irish republic, that no peace proposals had come from the British government, the premier added:

"It is impossible to treat with men who deliberately lie time after time. We have said that short of actual session we are willing to meet their (the Sinn Féin) leaders. What they want is a formal invitation to the Irish republic to attend a peace conference after the manner of the Poles and the Russian soviet. But the British government will never be coerced into adopting such a policy."

There is every indication that important political events will be forthcoming soon as a result of the division of opinion among the ministers over the MacSwiney case and other matters. It is indicated that two groups of opinion exist in government circles: One seeking more drastic Irish policy; the other favoring conciliation and mildness. Premier Lloyd George has indicated that the Irish policy may be put up to the government for a possible revision which would increase the tension already existing.

COX IN MONTANA READY TO GIVE MORE "EVIDENCE"

Reception In North Dakota Not As Spontaneous.

Enroute With Gov. Cox, Culbertson, Mont., Sept. 8.—Governor James M. Cox, the Democratic presidential nominee entered Montana today on his "swing around the circle," determined in a speech to be delivered at an early date, to present evidence which he believes will show that those corporations which made great profits during the war are contributing most heavily to the $15,000,000 "slush fund" which he says Republican leaders are raising for the purpose of "buying the presidency of the United States."

The American Woolen company, the governor charged in his speech at Minot, S. D., last night is the "most notorious profiteer in America" and he let it be known that he expects soon to be able to make public the result of surveys he has instigated into the circumstances surrounding the laying off of workmen by the corporation.

Though the reception accorded Governor Cox in North Dakota, was hardly as spontaneous as that which he has been given in some other states of the middle west, the governor expressed himself as more than pleased with the result of the trip. Early indication were that an even more cordial welcome would greet him in Montana.

VOTE TESTS LEAGUE

"IRRECONCILABLE" RENOMINATED BY CONSTITUENTS.

Concord, N. H., Sept. 8.—In what is regarded as the first voting test on the League of Nations, U. S. Senator George H. Moses, one of the Senate "irreconcilables" was renominated in the state Republican primaries. Almost complete returns today showed that Huntley N. Spaulding, former state food administrator running against Moses as favoring the League with Lodge reservations, was defeated by several thousand votes. In some places more women voted than men.

Albert W. Moore Democrat, was defeated for the U. S. Senatorial nomination by Raymond B. Stevens, said for the gubernatorial nomination by Charles E. Tilton.

RIOTS IN COAL FIELDS ENDED BY POLICEMEN

Squad Of State Troopers Charge Rioters Near Wilkesbarre.

MOB IS DISPERSED

More Trouble Brewing In Other Districts It Is Believed.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 8.—First trouble of a serious nature in the anthracite field occurred at Cork Lane, Pittston, early today when a squad of state troopers charged a mob of Pennsylvania coal company strikers who endeavored to prevent other strikers from returning to work.

The trouble occurred at the Delaware and Hudson railway station. A score of men who joined the strike of Pennsylvania men in July report at the depot today and were on their way to Olyphant where they were to work for the Delaware and Hudson railway. Shortly before the work train pulled in one hundred strikers appeared and charged the depot, hurling sticks, stones and clubs.

State troopers were patrolling the district and while the riot was at its height they rode into the mob with mob sticks flying, battering the heads of any and all who were in their way. The suddenness with which they came and the fierceness with which they charged took the fight out of the rioters and they broke and fled in all directions. None are dangerously injured.

There are signs of trouble in other districts. The reason for this is that local unions are divided into factions. One side will vote to return to work and the other will vote to remain on strike. The opposition is becoming so bitter that several districts, particularly in the upper part of district 1, report riotous gatherings.

Gradually the insurgent forces are being weakened. Several more rallies were able to operate in district 1 today, and this in face of the fact that it is a church holiday that is generally celebrated by some of the foreign speaking mine workers. In districts 7 and 9, there is no break in the ranks, the insurgents having but two districts which are in complete idleness.

TRANSCONTINENTAL MAIL AIR PLANE ON FLIGHT TO COAST

First Mail Plane To Attempt Cross Country Flight Begins Trip.

Minneapolis, N. Y., Sept. 8.—The first transcontinental mail airplane left Curtis Field at 6:41 o'clock this morning for San Francisco, carrying about 400 pounds of mail, or 16,000 letters and packages. The machine—a De Havilland postoffice plane—was piloted by R. G. Page, of Washington, D. C. The weather was excellent with only a light breeze.

A second mail plane, carrying about 16,000 letters, left at 7:28 o'clock. It was piloted by William Hopson. Much of this mail was signed to San Francisco and other Pacific coast points, but it will not be carried all the way by airplane. Airplanes and fast mail trains will alternate in carrying this consignment.

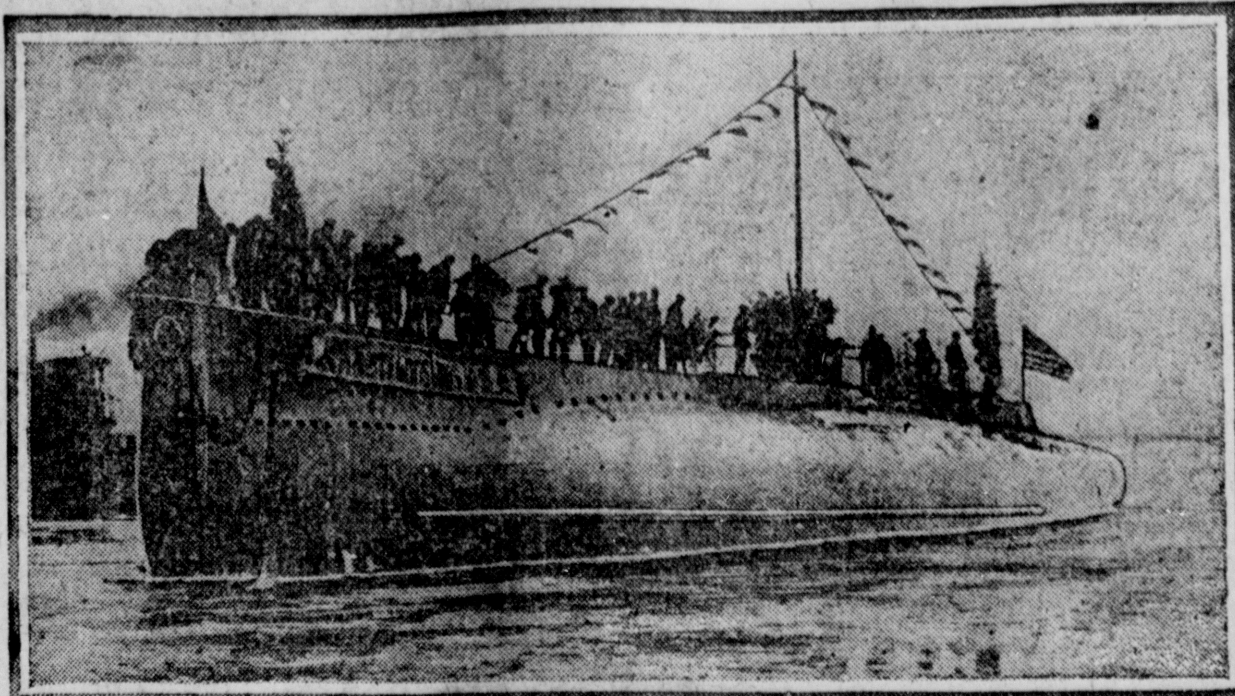

When the mail was loaded into Page's "ship" there was an overflow and some of it was stuffed into a suit case and strapped to one of the wings. Among the letters were some from Senator Harding, Republican presidential nominee addressed to friends in San Francisco. Others were from Postmaster General Burellson and Assistant Postmaster General Praeger and were addressed to San Francisco newspapers.

Page's first scheduled stop was Cleveland, Ohio.

CREW OF SUBMARINE RESCUED AFTER BEING TRAPPED 18 HOURS

After being trapped in the U. S. submarine S-5, which sank in twenty-eight fathoms of water 55 miles southeast of Cape Henlopen Del., thirty members of the crew were rescued through a hole cut in the stern of the S-5. The sinking and subsequent rescue constituted one of the most thrilling dramas of the sea enacted in recent years. The men were trapped in the vessel for more than forty-eight hours and only the pumping of fresh air through the side of sunken craft enabled them to keep alive. The S-5 was one of the newest types of submarines and was put in commission recently. She was bound for Baltimore on a recruiting trip and was making her maiden voyage. This is a photograph of the S-16, a sister boat and an exact prototype of the S-5.

BROOKLYN CAR FIRED UPON BY STRIKING MEN

No One Wounded In Attack By Sympathizers Of Strike.

NO SETTLEMENT NEAR

Another Attempt At Mediation Made On Wednesday.

New York, Sept. 8.—A Brooklyn Rapid Transit train operated by strikebreakers on the Culver line in Brooklyn today was fired upon by strikers or strike sympathizers. No one was wounded. The attack was made near the Washington cemetery, and 3 shots were fired. An automobile with nine men in it raced alongside the train while the shooting was being done. One bullet crashed through a window; the other two struck the side of a car.

Another attempt at mediation was scheduled for today with a meeting between Mayor Hylan and representatives of the trolley men's union.

Lindley M. Garrison, receiver for the B. R. T. issued an ultimatum, backed by the federal court, that all striking employees who did not return to work by noon would have to apply for new men and would have to finally address the matter. Officials of the company claimed that more than 3,500 old employees have signed their intention of returning to work.

BOND IS FURNISHED FOR DEFENDANTS IN STATE MURDER CASE

Trial Set For January After Hot Verbal Battle In Court.

Williamson, W. Va., Sept. 8.—Fifteen of the twenty four defendants charged with the murder of seven Baldwin-Felts detectives at Matewan May 19 are free on bond of $10,000 each today, following the granting of the state's motion for a continuance by Judge James Damron late yesterday. The remaining nine are expected to furnish bond shortly.

The cases were set down for trial beginning January 19, after a hot verbal battle between counsel for the state and the defense. Absence of Thomas Anderson, one of the detectives who escaped death on May 19, when seven of his companions and four citizens were killed, was the chief ground advanced for seeking a continuance. Anderson is in a hospital at Bluefield and unable to attend.

Meanwhile the grand jury is engaged in passing upon other cases growing out of the shooting, and indictments against at least four of the present defendants charging them with the murder of Ansey Hatfield, considered the state's most material witness is expected some time today. Prosecuting Attorney Bronson stated today that he would ask immediate trial if these indictments were returned.

SEVEN PETITIONS ASKING RECALL IN CIRCULATION NOW

Commissioners Say They Will Have An Answer Ready.

With seven petitions asking for the recall of City Commissioners J. Thorb Charters, C. S. Frazer and Arthur Whalen being circulated Wednesday, the campaign to secure the necessary 25 percent of the voters to gain recognition for the petition before the city auditor, was becoming more strenuous.

Tuesday when the petitions were first put out, they were in the hands of but three men, John A. North, Allen McClain and Cliff Latimer, Wednesday, however, four more copies of the petition were put in the hands of backers of the movement for circulation.

Mr. North, who is one of the backers of the recall, denied the rumor that it would be difficult to secure enough of the voters to get the necessary recall. "We have fifty percent of the first 25 percent already," said Mr. North, "and we have not started yet. We will have all the signatures necessary and more to within a few days."

Neither Mr. Charters, president of the commission nor C. S. Frazer, two of the commissioners whose recall is asked for would discuss the matter of the petitions Wednesday. Both were inclined to let the matter rest until they can come out with their defensive statement when the petition with the proper number of signatures is filed at the city auditor's office. Arthur Whalen, third of the commissioners whose recall is asked for, could not be reached Wednesday for an interview.

"We will have an answer ready to file when the time comes," said both Mr. Charters and Mr. Frazer. They signified that in the meantime they would let the matter rest, until the petitions with the proper number of signatures are presented, and the defensive statements will then have to be filed within five days.

Both Mr. Charters and Mr. Frazer said they would not resign in the face of the petition but would retain their positions in the city governing body until they are actually removed from office.

The railwaymen and the dock workers threaten to join the movement inaugurated by the metal workers.

RESTORES BRAINS

OPERATION PERFORMED ON AUTO VICTIM SUCCESSFUL.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—One of the most remarkable surgical operations ever known here came to light today when it was announced that C. L. Kopp, a merchant of Huron, S. D., would leave St. Luke's hospital entirely recovered from an automobile accident that literally dashed out his brains. Kopp was struck by an automobile on August 14. The whole left side of his head was crushed and a portion of his brain protruded from a fissure in his skull. Dr. Harry Mock, a former army surgeon removed bits of straw from Kopp's straw hat which had been thrust into the brain tissue, removed two or three pebbles and a piece of rubber which had lodged in the wound, replaced a portion of the brain that protruded and closed the fissure. An hour later Kopp had recovered consciousness and his recovery was rapid.

NATIONS SHOW UNWILLINGNESS TO LOSE ARMS

Universal Disarmament Is Not Favored By Countries.

PROBE SITUATION

Government Begins Investigation Into Status Today.

Washington, Sept. 8.—The government has started an informal investigation as to the progress made by the nations of the world in the movement for universal disarmament.

Inasmuch as control of armaments was made one of the objects of the league of nations, the inquiry into the movement for universal disarmament has developed, officials said, into an investigation of the present status of the armament control clauses of the league of nations covenant.

Without having taken up the main problem of a radical and general disarmament of nations, the league of nations, according to reports received here in official circles, has begun the organization of machinery for solving the problem. Preliminary investigations and studies of the league have commenced and some subsidiary phases of the main problem, such as the control of the manufacture of munitions and of the use of gas in warfare, have already been discussed with a view to reaching a universal agreement.

As a result of the necessity of seeking American co-operation, whether within the league or without, in any effectual program for the limitation of armaments, the official advices reported that early action on any scheme for universal disarmament was not to be expected. At the same time the clashing of the nationalistic interests of many nations also is recognized as temporarily obstructing any plans for the immediate reduction of armaments.

Advices from Japan have indicated that strong opposition exists there against any limitation of armaments, as it is claimed that Japan, on account of her peculiar position, is entitled to exception by other nations from any program of disarmament.

Inquiries from other sources have indicated an unwillingness on the part of other nations to consent to reduce in any way their armament short of the most universal co-operation of all other governments.

A lively session is looked for when questioning of Moore is resumed. His stay on the stand yesterday was marked with many exchanges between Moore and Republican members of the committee.

No testimony given by Moore as yet has provided direct evidence to support Governor Cox's charges. Besides Moore numerous other witnesses were to be examined today most of them regarding the alleged Republican fund.

FARM POLICY OUTLINED BY SEN. HARDING

Commits Party To Definite Program Of Activities.

MUST DEVELOP FARM

Nation Must Be Independent Regarding Food Supply.

State Fair Grounds, St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 8.—Speaking today at the Minnesota State Fair on his first campaign trip outside of Ohio, Senator Warren G. Harding, mapped out a definite program of agricultural policies to which he committed himself and his party if elected in November.

Senator Harding's speech was devoted solely to agricultural matters and among his hearers were thousands of farmers from the great wheat belt of the northwest.

America, the Senator declared has reached the fork in the road with regard to agriculture. From a distinctly rural nation 60 years ago. We have turned into an industrial nation wherein 70 per cent of the people dwell in cities and the other 30 per cent produce the food.

"We are rapidly approaching the zero mark from the standpoint of agricultural supplies to the world," said Senator Harding. "The time is almost with us when our imports of farm-grown products will exceed the exports."

"The time has come when, as a nation we must determine upon a definite agricultural policy. We must decide whether we shall undertake to make the United States a self-sustaining nation—which means that we shall grow within our own boundaries all the staple food products needed to maintain the highest type of civilization—or whether we shall continue to exploit our agricultural resources for the benefit of our industrial and commercial life, and leave to posterity the task of finding enough strong arm methods, if necessary, to support the coming hundreds of millions."

"I believe in the self-sustained, independent, self-reliant nation, agriculturally, industrially and politically. We are then the guarantee of our own security and are equal to the task."

Senator Harding asserted that he had no thought of the government's working out an elaborate system of agriculture or to any of our great national industries would stifle ambition, impair efficiency, lessen production and make us a nation of dependent incompetents.

But something ought to be done the senator said and he enumerated them as follows:

1.—Give farmers a representation in government affairs.

2.—Grant farmers the right to form co-operative associations, to market their products.

3.—Reduce abnormal fluctuations of prices in farm products. The Republican party pledges itself to a scientific study of this problem.

4.—Put an end to unbusinesslike fixing of farm products and to ill-considered efforts arbitrarily to reduce farm product prices.

5.—Administration of the farm loan law to help men own their farm and extension of the long term credit plan.

6.—Restore railroad transportation to an efficient state so that losses will not be incurred through inability to market farm products.

7.—Revise the tariff in order to protect labor, agriculture and industry and lower foreign standards.

In conclusion, Harding said: "We need fewer land hogs, who menace our future, and more fat hogs for ham and bacon. We need less guile in cultivating a quadrennial crop of votes and more consideration for farming as our basic industry."

SCHOOL REGISTRATION BELIEVED LARGEST IN HISTORY OF THE CITY

While Supt. C. A. Waltz was unable to state Tuesday evening just what the school enrollment for this year is, it is estimated that the number of children entering the fall term is larger than ever before.

Particularly, is this true of Central high school where the enrollment greatly exceeds last year's number. Estimates show that the enrollment during opening week of the Central high school will be about 375, which is almost 50 in excess of what it was last year.

While only estimates were obtainable Tuesday evening, the freshmen class already appears to be the largest that ever entered the school, with about 130 students enrolled in first year work. At McKinley Junior high the enrollment is well over 200, and the grades have also gained this year the first grade at McKinley school numbers over 60 pupils.

With the abandoning of the third floor of the Central high school building, because it was feared it was unsafe, Supt. Waltz has a Chinese puzzle in disposing of the six grades and four high school classes to be taken care of. The auxiliary building in the rear of the school, built by students last year, is already filled to overflowing, and one grade is housed in the Christ Church parish house on Whiteman street. With these arrangements made, there is no room for the second grade children at the school, and it is thought now that a portable school building will have to be obtained to meet the deficit in school room facilities.

The abandoning of the third floor has necessitated the change of the high school office to the first floor, where Principal Pendry has an office partitioned off from a class room.

FAMOUS FANS

This section certainly owes a lot to the automobile

LOOK at it just from the business standpoint, compared with, say, ten years ago—or even five.

Everything speeded up—made easier. Nearly every business man depending on the automobile to transport himself and his products.

That is one reason, perhaps, why more attention is being paid to tires—why tire costs are being figured closer and people are beginning to look for better tires.

We believe that people are entitled to better tires—the best they can get.

Not only the man with the big car, but the man with the small car, and the medium sized car.

III

We represent U. S. Tires for that reason—because their policy is the same as ours—every tire as good as you can get it, regardless of the size of the car it is to go on.

It was that policy which led to the introduction of the straight side automobile tire, the pneumatic truck tire.

And you can't beat it.

IV

U. S. Tires are guaranteed for life, with no limitation of mileage.

It will pay you to talk to us about tires, if you are looking at them from a business standpoint.

DECLARES HE IS HIGHLY PLEASED WITH NEW REMEDY

Well known Dayton citizen, suffered from sluggish liver, weak kidneys, nervousness, loss of appetite and constipation.

The great herbal remedy, Dreco, gave prompt relief and made him feel full of energy.

"I formerly lost from five to eight days a month on account of sickness. I got so much better when I first began taking Dreco, but being a conservation man, I waited until I was positive Dreco was doing the work then I was glad to endorse it, says Mr. C. Hunsicker of 14 Orchard Ave., Dayton, O.

"My liver was sluggish and I often had dizzy spells, spots floated before my eyes; my tongue was coated, and I had a foul taste in my mouth. My kidneys were weak, and I often had dull, aching pains in my back. After each meal I'd feel very uncomfortable caused by gastritis, which gave my stomach a full, bloated feeling, often with a burning sensation. I dreaded for night to come because I was so nervous I could not sleep, but would roll and toss from one side of the bed to the other, and when morning came I would be more worn out than when I retired the night before.

"Since taking Dreco all these ailments have disappeared. My bowels act regularly; no more dizzy attacks; the bad taste and foul breath are gone; I stoop and bend over without a pain in my limbs, and all the aches in my back, in the region of my kidneys are gone. I sleep sound all night long and have to be roused every morning. I can't say enough in praise of this great remedy Dreco."

All druggists now sell Dreco and it is being especially introduced in Xenia by Sohn's Drug Store.

HOUSING PROBLEM RELIEVED BY ACTION OF H. & A. ERECTING HOMES FOR WORKERS

With sixteen houses almost completed and more contemplated the Hooven & Allison company is making rapid strides toward alleviating the housing problem in this city.

So many new houses have been built in the Hooven & Allison colony on Stelton road, formerly Miller avenue, that the district might be called Hooven & Allison town. The number of houses shows the steps forward, being taken by the company in providing suitable dwellings for their employees.

The company now owns and rents to employees at a minimum rental, sixty-one houses. The colony was started on Stelton road some time ago with the erection of double houses. Recently the company started the erection of a number of single family dwellings on both sides of the street, and the street that was once little more than a country road is now a closely built residential section.

With the completion of the sixteen houses now almost finished, work will begin on 18 more single family dwellings. All of these houses are supplied with modern improvements, some of them being supplied with bathrooms and others without. Water is available inside in all of them.

As fast as the houses are completed they are rented to employees who desire them. The rental ranges from $11 to $15 a month, unusually low for this period and the incomes on them does not pay the investment, the object of the company being merely to improve the living conditions for employees.

The houses are kept under supervision of the Company and this supervision extends to seeing that they are kept clean and habitable. Under this guidance employees are provided with good clean homes at a rental price that is considerably less than that asked for homes in not near so good condition.

Besides these newly built homes, the company owns and rents to employees, several other houses purchased outright, within a radius of the mills on Cincinnati avenue, so that the workers will be close to their work. The erection of these houses by the company is tending not only to relieve the congested housing condition in this city, but is also a step forward in the way of better health conditions.

Men Choose This Hudson For Daily Rapid Transit

Unfailing Reliability With Comfort and Economy Accounts For Its Popularity Among Motor Commuters

THE partiality to Hudson of men who regard their cars primarily for their utility, is readily understood in the light of abilities for which the Super-Six stands supreme among all the world's cars.

Those who must depend on motor transit are uncompromising realists where cars are concerned.

They are seldom novice owners. And their experience has taught them knowledge of the substantial values that endure unchanged by time. It is such men, in the main, who for five years have made Hudson the largest selling fine car in the world.

With them reliability is the first consideration. That answered, the governing factors are safe and rapid transit, with economy, comfort and freedom from any mechanical concern.

The Hudson coupe is a favorite model with all owner-drivers, and especially with the growing thousands who commute by motor, from country and suburban homes to their business in the city.

Until the present, we have been months in arrears of demand on this favorite model. Now, however, we can assure reasonably early delivery on a limited number of orders, if placed promptly.

One Organ, One Pipe, One Piece of Music!

BY CRANT E. HAMILTON OF "JUDGE"

HELLO BOYS—COME LET US REASON TOGETHER.

Let it down as a fact to which there are no exceptions that we must labor for all we have, and that nothing is worth anything which costs us nothing.

And this is peculiarly so with education and with learning in general. You can get nothing out of an empty vessel.

Men who have half-a-dozen irons in the fire are not the men to go crazy. It is the man of voluntary or compelled leisure who mopes and pines and thinks himself into the mad house or the grave.

If you want to be worth something in life you must equip yourself by industrious study. Do not ask if a boy has been through college, ask if the college has been through him.

A word to the young people. While you are calculating your selling value, and what to do to improve it, why not nail down this resolution, that you will have a first-class education at some first-class college? Yes, and that at all costs you'll get it? For, of course, an education, such as you should not be content to be without, costs effort, time and money.

Here's a little lecture which Mr. Bartle Massey, the teacher, gave to some of his pupils who needed it:

"You think knowledge is to be got cheap—you'll come and pay Bartle Massey six-pence a week, and he'll make you clever at figures without your taking any trouble. . . . I'll have nobody in my night school who doesn't strive to learn, what he comes to learn, as if he was striving to get out of a dark hole into broad daylight. I'll not throw away good knowledge on people who think they can get it by the six penn'orth, and carry it away with them as they would an ounce of snuff. So never come to me again, if you can't show that you've been working with your own heads instead of thinking you can pay for mine to work for you." ("Adam Bede," chap. 21.)

I like Berton Braley's verses:
 "Life is a selling problem, that is all,
 And every man is his own line of goods,
 And what the price is, big or very small,
 Is simply up to him. For though the woods
 Are full of buyers for his sort of stock,
 We've got to learn the way to sell himself,
 Or he'll discover, with a cruel shock,
 That he's a marked-down remnant on the shelf."

"So, to begin with, he must try to be
 An article of value, sound and fair;
 For if he isn't—take this straight from me,
 He'll find the market sluggish everywhere.
 But having worth, he must let buyers know
 He's on the market to supply their need;
 He's got to make his value show
 So plainly that whoever runs may read."

BEHOLD A CHANGE EQUAL TO THAT BETWEEN NIGHT AND DAY.

The effects of prohibition as already apparent, even if the laws have been largely neutralized and poorly enforced in some places, have been highly satisfactory to all except the two abnormal classes who are ruled by avarice, the liquor market and the saloon keeper. They care nothing for the advance in the public welfare. They are ready to trample all good influences to the ground, if only they can get people drunk, on the one hand, and coin blood money on the other. But the majority of people lie outside these two unsatisfactory classes.

The workhouses, poorhouses, city prisons, hospital alcoholic wards and such institutions have become noticeably depopulated. A great change for the better has been effected. In this year of high prices the former drinkers have spent their money in feeding, clothing and housing their families or there would have been terrible destitution and suffering. In this year of post-war crime there has lacked the ordinary stimulus that drink gives to crime, and crime has been far more largely curbed than would have been possible had the saloon continued to inflame men's passions. Men who were formerly working in occupations connected with liquor have found occupations almost without exception, and with more profit. Buildings that were formerly occupied by the drink traffic are now, almost universally, occupied by reputable forms of business.

Behold how the liquorettes lied when they predicted vacant property and unemployed people if prohibition came. Instead has come happiness and prosperity to millions of homes. Praise God from whom all blessings flow.

OIL.

I know a dozen men who've won snug fortunes by the route of oil, and their financial cares are done, they do not have to spin or toil. They ride around in limousines, in all the pomp men could desire, and care no hoot how many beans it takes to buy a rubber tire. And when I see them in their pride, my own sad outlook makes me blue; I have a yearning pain inside—I'll go and buy some oil stock, too. Then I remember countless gents who tackled oil and hoped they'd win, and now they haven't forty cents to buy a stein of prohib gin. I see them sleeping in the park, on benches comfortless and bare, and when they wake some leaves and bark will be their breakfast bill of fare. Where one oil magnate lives in state, and has nine banks on which to draw, a thousand losers rail at fate and say there ought to be a law. And so I buy no oil well stock, nor heed prospectuses sublime; along my humble way I walk, and save a quarter at a time.

PORTABLE HOUSE TO TAKE CARE OF SCHOOL PUPILS PLANNED

The question of securing a portable school house for service at the overcrowded Central School building was considered by the Board of Education at a special meeting held Tuesday evening.

The overflow from the grades at Central building has been partly taken care of in the parish house of the Christ Episcopal Church and part in the auxiliary building erected in the rear of the school house by students last year.

However the second grade pupils numbering over thirty, have not been assigned to a place yet, because it has been impossible to find room for them. The portable school house proposition offers itself as a solution of this problem, but no action toward such a building has been decided upon by the Board yet.

ASPHALT COAT ON CITY STREETS WILL BE LAID THURSDAY

With the arrival of General Manager Rankin, of the Texaco Asphalt Co. of Chicago, Wednesday morning, it is assured that the laying of the asphalt top coat of city streets would start Thursday.

The work has been delayed through inability to get materials through, but now the plant is ready for operation.

The Pittsburgh Testing Laboratories have been employed by the city to conduct the test of all the asphalt and mixture that will be used on the streets by the Republic Asphalt Co. contractors, and a chemist will be kept on the job here all the time, to see that the asphalt put down on the streets here is up to standard.

Thirty-two more cartloads of material have been received by the Republic Asphalt Co., at the asphalt plant near the Shawnee Refrigeration Company, which with two other cars received several days before, makes practically a whole trainload of material on hand to take care of the local job.

The work of laying the asphalt will begin first on Home Avenue which was the first street on which the concrete base was laid. While laid only for a base the concrete on the street has stood up well under heavy traffic all summer as the street was thrown open as soon as the concrete was dry enough.

In places where it appears to have been damaged by the summer traffic the concrete will be gone over and patched. The street will also be thoroughly cleaned so that there is no surface dirt standing on it, when the top coat of asphalt is added.

The announcement that the asphalt work will start Thursday is assurance that the completion of the paving work here will be pushed rapidly in order to complete it before cold weather brings a halt to the work.

O. S. & S. O. HOME SCHOOLS REOPEN FOR ANOTHER YEAR

The schools of the O. S. and S. O. Home re-opened Tuesday for the fall semester, with an attendance that is estimated to be about fifty lower than the enrollment for last year.

This is due to the fact that more children of the school age were discharged from the institution last June, than were received. Only about ten children in the institution are under school and kindergarten age. About fifteen attend kindergarten.

The faculty of the Home school includes several new teachers this year. Miss Florence Clark of Sunderland, Mass. is the new supervisor of music. Miss Elizabeth Applegate who resigned as teacher in the Home schools two years ago, to take up government work in Washington, has returned to the local institution as teacher this year. Other new members of the teaching force are: Miss Carrie Acton of Goshen, O., in the high school; Mrs. Irbina Heller of Blanchester, Miss Harriet Bowers and Miss Mary Rowe of New Vienna in the grades.

PLANS GO FORWARD FOR FORMATION OF XENIA COUNTRY CLUB

With nearly $5,000 worth of stock subscribed at the initial meeting held at the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday evening, the proposed Xenia Country Club is now practically assured, declared those interested.

Unusual enthusiasm was shown at the meeting held Tuesday evening, which however, was not largely attended. With the adoption of plans for forming a company, the backers of the movement agreed with the recommendation of the site committee on the north part of the Roberts estate as a location for the club, and agreed at once to form a stock company with a goal of $30,000.

The tract decided upon contains 69 acres of rolling country, within walking distance of the city on the car line and the water main. A house on the Kelly land, owned by James E. Kelly, has been donated by him to the newly formed club, and will be moved to a new location on the site of the country club. This house is valued at $4,000 and it will be remodeled into a club house. Later as the club prospers, another club house can be built and this house used as a caretaker's residence.

Instilled with enthusiasm from the meeting, backers immediately went forth to attempt to place $30,000 worth of stock before starting the venture. The subscription of $15,000 worth of stock however, will bind the proposition and the club will be assured with that much stock issued.

A membership committee, composed of subscription captains who may enlist anyone they wish to act with them in selling stock in the organization, was appointed and will meet at the Chamber of Commerce Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. The committee is composed of Dr. R. Kent Finley, R. S. Kingsbury, A. H. Finley, C. L. Jobe, James D. Adair, Mrs. H. S. LeSourd and Mrs. James Kelly. At the meeting Thursday plans will be laid for the disposal of the balance of the stock.

With the enthusiasm shown by the backers of the country club at the first meeting it is expected to put the stock deal across within 10 days. People interested are invited to get in touch with members of the membership committee as it is hoped to have every member a stock holder. With the sale of $15,000 worth of stock plans for the club will be started at once, with the purchase of the land from Frank W. Dodds, the owner. The club house will then be moved and remodeled with probably an addition and a large porch and tennis courts, a golf course and a place for trap shooting will be laid out.

STERRETT'S Alfalfa Compound

The Best TONIC on Earth

(LIQUID AND TABLET)

An infallible remedy for Indigestion, Constipation, Neuritis, Rheumatism and all character of Nerve and Stomach troubles.

A One Dollar Bottle contains 28 doses. A One Dollar Box contains 48 doses, the dose in each case being exactly of the same efficiency.

The Crowned Queen of Plant Life

The FLU Edward Jackette, 203 East Franklin Street, Troy, Ohio, went to bed with a well defined case of the "Flu" and went back to his work at the Pearson Laundry in five days by the use of one Alfalfa Compound Laxative Tablet and a 3 grain capsule of quinine 3 times a day, before or after meals. This treatment is a certain preventative as well as a remedy.

Alexander Smith, living at Plumb and Canal Streets, Troy, Ohio, was afflicted with severe indigestion which was no doubt the cause of heart derangement of which he was entirely relieved by Alfalfa Tablets and gained 25 pounds in 2 months thereafter. He was attacked with the "Flu" afterward and used nothing but Alfalfa Tablets and quinine same as Jackette case and was well in 5 days.

Col Sterrett: I am on my third bottle of Alfalfa and can most heartily recommend it to any one affected with indigestion or stomach trouble. I have been a sufferer for fourteen years with one of the worst cases on record and failed to find relief from many doctors and from medicines I have taken to relieve it. I could neither eat or drink without intense suffering and spent many sleepless nights. Your Alfalfa has restored me to normal health. I eat and drink freely without any bad effects and "sleep the sleep of the just made perfect." I believe you have made a discovery that is bound to be a blessing to humanity all the ages to come.

Very truly,

NUXATED IRON

Dr. Ferdinand King, New York Physician and Medical Author, says: "It is my opinion that in practically nine times out of ten, weakness, nervousness and falling strength and vitality are due to deficiency of iron in the blood. I am convinced that there are thousands who simply by taking Nuxated Iron, might readily build up their red blood corpuscles, increase their physical energy and get themselves back to vibrant and vigorous health."

Feel Old?

Overwork, worry, anxiety or sorrow undermines strength and health. These causes contribute to kidney trouble, and weak or diseased kidneys make one feel old in middle age.

Foley Kidney Pills

help weak, overworked or diseased kidneys and bladder so that the system is free from waste and poisonous matter that causes one to feel old, tired, unguided. They banish backache, rheumatic pains, sore muscles, stiff joints.

Mrs. J. D. Miller, Syracuse, N. Y., writes: "For many years I suffered with kidney trouble and rheumatism. I had a severe backache and felt miserable and all played out. I got to a place where I had to do something. After taking two bottles of Foley Kidney Pills I can say my backache is gone, and where I used to lay awake at night with rheumatic pains I can now sleep in comfort and enjoy a good night's rest."

HOLD REUNION OF FORMER PUPILS AT BEAVERCREEK SCHOOL

One hundred and thirty persons attended the eleventh annual reunion of pupils of the old Beaver Creek graded school which was held Monday in Ankeney Grove adjoining the Beaver Creek church. The day was ideal for the gathering and dinner was served at long tables spread beneath the trees.

Daniel Overholster, president of the Beaver Creek Schools Association presided at the program which followed dinner. An interesting talk on the right of suffrage recently obtained by women, was made by Mrs. May Holman Corwin of Cincinnati. A review of the history of the old school was given by Horace Ankeney, who recalled many incidents of their school days which had been forgotten by the ex-pupils attending the reunion. Much interest was manifested in a picture of Miss Victoria Jackson, now living in Illinois, who was one of the early teachers in the Beaver School. Miss Jackson sent the photograph to be exhibited at the reunion. Henry Williams of this city who spent first school days in the Beaver School, and others gave impromptu talks. The following officers of the association were elected: president, Daniel Overholster; vice president, William Kershner of Dayton; recording secretary D. O. Jones; corresponding secretary, Mrs. R. L. Gowdy; treasurer, Grant Miller.

BEAVERCREEK

The opening of the Beaver Creek High School Monday morning was a delightful surprise to many and fulfilled the estimate sent out to the pupils in a letter last week stating that for the three past years the attendance was respectively 38, 52, and 61 and estimating the enrollment for 1920 at 80. The pupils began to drive in from the different parts of the township and when the registration was completed it proved to be exactly 80. Ten more pupils will probably start within the next few days. The Smith-Hughes Vocational Agriculture department will have a large attendance. This department is open free for all men of Beaver Creek township regardless of age, and to a limited number of men from any part of the county at an expense of text books only. Those wishing to attend may communicate with Prin. F. P. Sayrs, Alpha, Ohio. The Board of Education was represented at the opening of the school. The following are the teachers for the coming year: D. S. Lynn, District Supt. F. P. Sayrs, Prin. Science. Letitia Dillencourt, English and Latin. Mary Wilgus, Mathematics and Social Subjects.

Fred R. Keeler, Smith-Hughes Vocational Agriculture. W. R. Sayrs, Music. Mrs. Jean Fox, Home Economics. The annual reunion of the pupils of the old school that many years ago stood near the present site of the Reformed church of Beaver, was held there Monday with an attendance of about 160. These annual gatherings are greatly enjoyed by those present.

The Mt. Zion S. S. had their picnic at the church grounds. The M. P. S. S. at the Harbline grove and the eBaver S. S. at Hills and Dales, Dayton All were enjoyable occasions. Phillip Hubbell has gone to Cumberland Gap, Tenn., to attend Lincoln Memorial University. Thomas Trehanne goes to Granville, Ohio to Dennison University. Dorothy Greece to Rhode Island to take a course in nursing; Mary Smart to Miami University to take the teacher course; Lucinda Caskey and Ollis Hart will attend Cedarville College. Ralph Munger and family of Sidney are visiting relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Jacobs and children, Robert Katherine and Edward Valliceta Hull, Zeldo Sayrs, June Thompson; Louise Trehanne and Elsie Munger spent some ten days at Russell's Point, returning last week. Prof. W. C. THIRTY RECRUITS ANSWER FOOTBALL CALL AT SCHOOL

Thirty recruits answered the first call for football practice at Central high school, issued by Coach Ward Young, following the first day of school Tuesday.

Owing to an extra amount of school work added to his schedule this year, V. L. Faires, head of the manual training department, who has coached the athletes at the local school for the past two years, has been obliged to withdraw from this position.

Coach Young, who succeeds Mr. Faires as athletic director, is the first mentor at the school for some time not attached to the faculty. He is a former Wittenberg star athlete, and was a football man of merit at the Lutheran institution. His appointment by Supt. C. A. Waltz as coach here, is expected to be a popular one. Mr. Young is representing the Hoover Sweeper company here, coming here from Springfield several weeks ago, and he is already acquainted with the local football situation and the necessity for hard work required to put the eleven across on the small nucleus of experienced material left from last year.

With two teams on the field in the Robert's estate Tuesday evening, the moleskin artists were put through a strenuous night's work of formation, passwork and changing. The candidates have not yet donned uniforms and will not go into the scrimmage until the last of the week. Next week will be entirely devoted to developing the squad for the first game which is scheduled with Urbana high school at that city on Sept. 18.

Capt. Boxwell is leading the list of recruits that turned out for initial practice Tuesday evening. This lad, though only a junior, played a sterling game in the backfield last season and is bound to become an able leader and instill much pep into his charges. In LeSourd, Coach Young has another pastimer, who uses his head as well as his body in football. This lad, who is trying to secure the berth at quarterback that he lost last year through an accident is a good field general and possesses a world of pluck.

However these two are the only regulars who were not swept away by the graduation in June, and around this small nucleus the coach must build his combination. Vast material to work on however, was displayed at the initial practice session. Among

LETTER FROM MRS. BRUCE

Tells Remarkable Story of Sickness and Recovery.

Brooksbury, Ind.—"When I was a young girl I clerked in my father's store and lifted heavy boxes which caused displacement and I suffered greatly. I was married at the age of eighteen and went to a doctor about my trouble and he said if I had a child I would be all right. After three years twins came to us and I did get all right but three years later a baby boy came and I was troubled again. I could scarcely do any work at all and suffered for four years. A neighbor told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took it for a year or more. Now I have a baby girl and do not have any female trouble. You can do anything you like with my letter to help others."

—Mrs. J. M. Bruce, R. F. D. 3, Brooksbury, Ind.

The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters as that above—they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no stranger—it has stood the test for more than forty years.

If there are any complications you do not understand write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass.

the lads who will battle for positions on the blue and white grid outfit will be Captain Boxwell, LeSourd, Cowan, McCoy, McFadden, McCallister, Purdom, Vannorsdall, Davidson, Hudson, Arthur and Don Currie, Robinson, Moore, Crow, Donges, Douthett, Carlett, Smith, McCormick, Woolery, Lynn, Canny, Randall and Leabey.

This last named is a brother of William Leabey of Maroon fame, and himself is a lively mixer on the whitewashed oblong. With this combination it looks as if only time and hard work will be needed to develop a squad that will do the school justice. Nevertheless, Coach Young and his proteges are going to make a desperate attempt to assemble the right combination to whip Urbana in the season's opener. The schedule is as follows:

Sept. 18—Xenia at Urbana.
Sept. 24—Xenia at Hillsboro.
Oct. 2—Greenfield at Xenia.
Oct. 8—Xenia at Wilmington.
Oct. 16—Troy at Xenia.
Oct. 30—Urbana at Xenia.
Nov. 6—Miamisburg at Xenia.
Nov. 13—Wilmington at Xenia.
Nov. 20—Springfield at Xenia.

Dividends of 19 Per Cent

The common stock of the Mead Pulp and Paper Company has paid dividends in cash and stock which have averaged 19 per cent a year during the past ten years. The preferred stock has an unbroken record of dividend payments.

You can buy three shares of 7 per cent Special Cumulative Preferred and one share of common stock for $390.

The estimated earnings of the Mead Pulp and Paper Company for 1920 are $270,000.

The capacity of the plant will be doubled in 1921 and the output will amount to about one-twentieth of the entire production of Magazine Paper in the United States.

The entire output of this mill has been contracted for over the next ten years on a basis that will pay all dividends on the preferred and further show earnings sufficient to pay attractive dividends on the common stock.

There is no mortgage ahead of this issue, and the company has net tangible assets of $350.00 back of every share of preferred stock, including this issue.

A sinking fund has been created which is sufficient to retire the entire issue of Preferred Stock at $115.00 per share in 24 years.

In our opinion this issue is very attractive. It is safe—it has a high earning capacity—and is tax-free in Ohio.

WINTER SEASON OF VICTORY THEATER TO OPEN NEXT TUESDAY

In opening the 1920-21 season at the Victory theater, Dayton, Ohio, the management feels justly proud of the attractions that it is able to announce. The quality is of the highest and best, in fact few cities will be so favored in theatrical fare except the producing centers. The policy of last season as regards the length of engagements will be continued from last season, that is, attractions will play for two, three and four nights. The generous response to the offerings of last season makes possible the continuation of this policy.

The Victory theater will open the fall season on Tuesday night Sept. 14, with that eminent young actor-manager Lou Tellegen in "Blind Youth." Mr. Tellegen has surrounded himself with a most admirable company of metropolitan artists, and has given the play a brand new dress, the settings being identical in construction and painting with those utilized during the long runs of the play in New York, Boston and Chicago.

Other attractions following Lou Tellegen will be Neil O'Brien's Minstrels Always You, a big musical comedy, a revival of "The Mikado," "The Greenwich Follies," Al Jolson in "Simbad," "Carmen," "Twin Beds," "Little Blue Devil," with Mabel McNamee, "Wedding Bells," Nora Bayes in her new musical comedy, "Dear Me," with Grace La Rue and Hale Hamilton, Guy Gates Poat in "The Masquerader," Bird of Paradise, "Listen Lester," David Warfield, Charlotte Greenwood, Jane Cowell, Grace George, Clarence, Jack O'Lantern, Eddie Wynn's Carnival, "Aphrodite," "Mary," "Nightie Night," "The Little Whopper," "The Royal Vagabond," Otis Skinner, Leo Dietrichstein, "The Acquittal," Abraham Lincoln, "Irene," Adam and Eva, Chauncey Olcott, Chu Chin Chow, "Passing Show," Winter Garden Show, Theda Bara, "Take It From Me," and many others. The management promises that all who come to the theater will be treated with fairness and with the utmost courtesy. Seats may be reserved as desired and residents of Xenia and surrounding towns are invited to send their reservations by mail or phone and are assured that they will receive attention in their proper order.

Is It Yours

ANTON DVORAK

September 8, 1841

Anton Dvorak, one of the world's greatest musicians, was born in a little town in Bohemia. He was the son of the village butcher and innkeeper. Wandering Gypsy-like men who played the fiddle used to stop at the inn and the small boy was finally given a fiddle of his own and was taught to play it. He scraped away at it every evening for the amusement of his father's guests, and was finally considered good enough to play at the church.

Eventually he was sent to live with an uncle and learned to play the piano and organ and even a little of composition from the local organist. When he was 16 he went by himself to Prague where he found a position playing in a theatre orchestra. He managed between that and playing at churches and giving music lessons to make a rather poor living. It was a particularly trying time for him because he was married and had to support a family. He did not always have enough money to buy music paper nor to hire a piano.

He was in his thirties when he wrote a patriotic hymn which was an instant success. Then he received a commission to write some Slavish dances which met with enthusiastic approval and made his fortune. He often visited England and he came to America where he was head of our National Conservatory in New York for some years. He died in Prague in 1904. He is most popularly known for his "Humoresque."

LUCKY

"IT'S TOASTED"

—the Cigarette

IF you are a cigarette smoker, and unacquainted with Lucky Strike, buy a package today, and find out for yourself why they are so popular.

You will at once notice the delicious flavor of Burley tobacco, delivered to you absolutely fresh. It's toasted.

—the Tobacco

TO pipe smokers Lucky Strike tobacco offers the same exceptional flavor as the famous cigarette. Made from the finest Burley tobacco—it's toasted for your pipe.

If you don't know how delicious toasted Lucky Strike is ask for a tin today, and taste!

IT'S TOASTED

The Burley tobacco leaves have pores, like a sponge. When "it's toasted" their pores are closed, the flavor sealed in, permanently. When you burn Lucky Strike in your pipe or cigarette, you are releasing the original Burley flavor that was sealed in by toasting. Exactly that. Heat seals it in, heat releases it.

You know how a bee seals in the flavor of honey with the thin coating of wax. This coating holds in that delicious honey flavor until it's used.

Just so the toasting process seals in the Burley flavor. This flavor is preserved until you release it by smoking. A wonderful process and a great discovery for smokers.

SWORN TESTIMONY REFUTES DENIAL OF COX ON WET FUNDS

Statement Appears In Columbus Periodical Is Report.

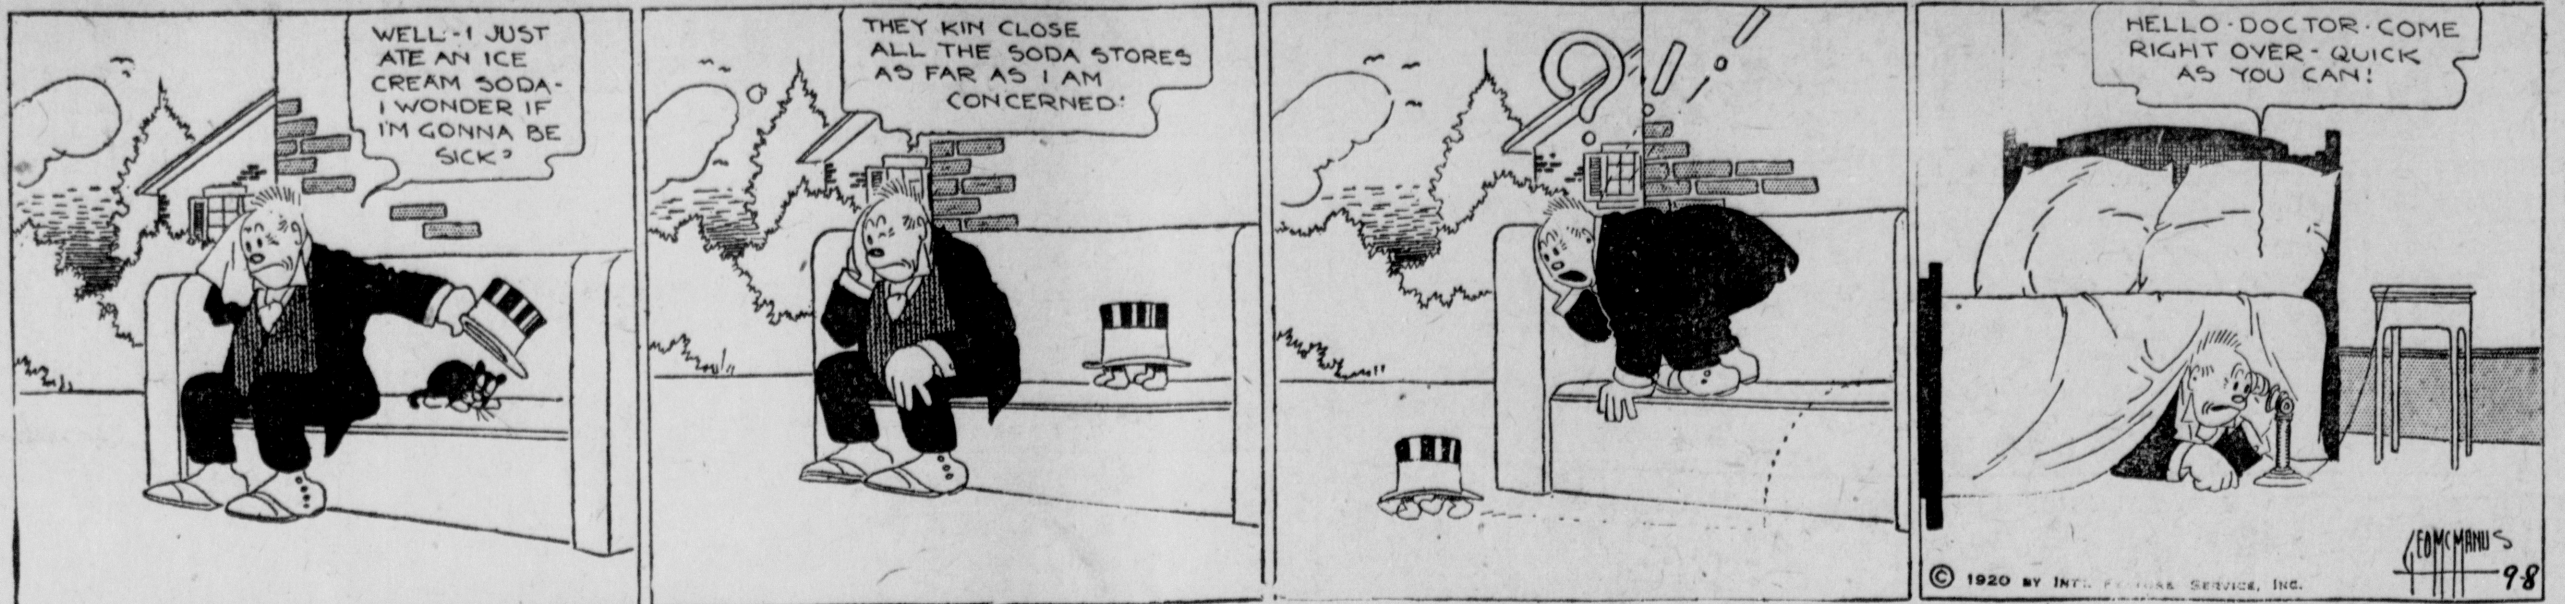

Columbus Sept. 7.—"Sworn testimony refuting James M. Cox's denial that wet interest 'ever contributed in any of his campaigns' is printed in the current issue of 'The Week,' a Columbus periodical," says a statement issued from Republican state headquarters here.

"Like the refutation of Cox's claim for credit for progressive legislation in Ohio and the exposure of the plot of his political machine to tax civil service employees for campaign contributors this latest development hits hard at the Democratic candidates sincerely," says The Week and rounds out the charge of the Providence Journal that Cox dragged the Ohio liquor interests into politics to strengthen his personal organization.

"The refutation of the statement of Cox with regard to wet contributions is taken from the official records of the secretary of state at Columbus. It is in the shape of a sworn report from the Ohio Liquor League that in the campaign of 1916 when Cox was re-elected by the slender plurality of 2,616 votes, that organization spent $1,417.52 in the interest of Cox's candidacy. The point about the present revelations is that Cox now denies the substantial aid he accepted in 1916.

"Considering the small plurality which Cox secured in this election in the contention among Republican leaders in Ohio that it was the concentration of the saloon element on the Cox candidacy which pulled him through. The point made just now is that Cox accepted this support and in 1916 and for reasons of his own now makes sweeping denial that the wets contributed to any of his campaigns."

of that city by a score of 3 to 2. The Bellbrooks had defeated the victors in two previous contests.

More than an average crowd was present at Mullin's park Sunday to witness the rub contest between the American Legion players of Xenia and the home aggregation. The game was "nip and tuck" with no scores until the last half of the third inning, when the visiting pitcher apparently lost all control and allowed the bases to fill with the result that one tallie was forced in when a fourth man was given a base on balls. At this point the visiting team protested that they were not being given a square deal by the local umpire, and after a short council of war among their members, decided to quit the game. They had packed their outfits and were already off the field when an agreement was finally reached to resume the game. The agreement provided for a change of empires, and to start on the last half of the third inning with no balls, no strikes, no men on bases and no runs. The home boys strongly maintain that a square deal had been given their competitors throughout, and that it was only for the purpose of not bringing disappointment to the large crowd present that they submitted to such an unjust arrangement score, Bellbrook 4, Xenia 1. Players for the local team were: Barnard, Weller, Dinwiddie, Weaver, Powell, Tate, H. Weller, Herran, and Pender. Crane was put in for a pinch hitter. The Xenia lineup was, Young, Whittington, Brown, Milburn, Tucker, Bath, Guilday, Schultz and Wilson.

Visitors in the village on Labor Day were as follows: Edward Miller of Warren, Ind.; Willie Webb, Carl Glosser, Judge J. C. and Leroy Marshall, Edward Strain, Dr. W. S. Ritenour and wife and Harry Ness. Charles Ryne of East Battle street is improving his barn with a coat of paint. Custis Austin is doing the spreading.

The home team and the Dayton Edgemonts met on the local diamonds with strong line-ups for a double header, Labor Day. The first game was a red hot article of ball from start to finish, and resulted in a victory of 3 to 1 in favor of Dayton. In the second game, the homers reached the visitors pitcher with such force that he was taken from the box and was followed by two other pitchers who were freely pounded for a number of hits. Score Bellbrook 7, Dayton 1. Umpire Harold Sidenstricker. Attendance 200. Collection $50.00. Manager Barnard informed us that there would be a game on the home grounds Sunday afternoon, September 12 at 2 o'clock.

A FAREWELL LUNCHEON

Chapter 111
During our luncheon Tony had asked me how much I earned with Mr. Claxton. When I told him rather proudly, I must admit, he said: "If you earn $25 a week can't you get out of that awful rooming house? I don't see how you stand with us. We don't care what she says."

"I do and must, Tony. You see we are apt to see people who know my position and who would make wrong deductions to see me with you, or any other wealthy man."

"Have it your own way now, Zena," he smiled at me. "But perhaps by the time I come back you will have changed your mind."

I had been so engrossed with Tony that I had not noticed anyone in the restaurant which was so large I would not have noticed any one I knew unless they had been sitting very near.

I was more than surprised as I went into the office to have Mr. Betts say:

"I see you break your rules when it suits you, Miss Stewart. A millionaire like Deland usually gets what he wants."

I was so surprised that he knew who Tony was that I said:

"You know Mr. Deland?"

"I know who he is. I was with a New York firm for a while that handled a good deal of his father's business."

"I have known Mr. Deland all my life," I replied then hurried past him into Mr. Claxton's office but not so quickly that I didn't hear Jennie Wilcox say:

gether like we used to." "But, Tony I have neither the time nor the strength to do the things I used to—nor the clothes. Then think what Old Lady Grundy would say if she knew that Tony Deland was wasting his time on an office girl."

"That old cat has nothing to do with us. We don't care what she says."

"I do and must, Tony. You see we are apt to see people who know my position and who would make wrong deductions to see me with you, or any other wealthy man."

"Have it your own way now, Zena," he smiled at me. "But perhaps by the time I come back you will have changed your mind."

"I have known Mr. Deland all my life," I replied then hurried past him into Mr. Claxton's office but not so quickly that I didn't hear Jennie Wilcox say:

"She's been brought up on millionaires according to her. Pity she had to butt in here as a bluff."

My cheeks burned I felt heart-sick as I invariably did when anything like that was said either to or about me. But I was fast learning that personal feelings of any kind could not be allowed to interfere with business if I were to make good. So as quickly as possible I compelled myself to put my mind on my work and forget her unpleasant remark.

"Has Mr. Deland gone?" It was so engrossed that I had not heard the office door open.

"Yes, he left about an hour ago. He is going to Europe."

"You will miss him. It must have been a great treat for you to see and talk to one of your old friends."

"It was, Mr. Claxton. And Tony was so nice to Mary and Tom. He took us all to dinner at the Blackstone Saturday night then to the theater."

I was surprised at the quick look of something very like gladness that came into Mr. Claxton's eyes at my remark.

"I dined at the Blackstone Saturday night, too, and saw you. The gentleman I was with knew Mr. Deland and spoke very highly of him."

"He is fine! Since his father's death he has become quite a business man I judge."

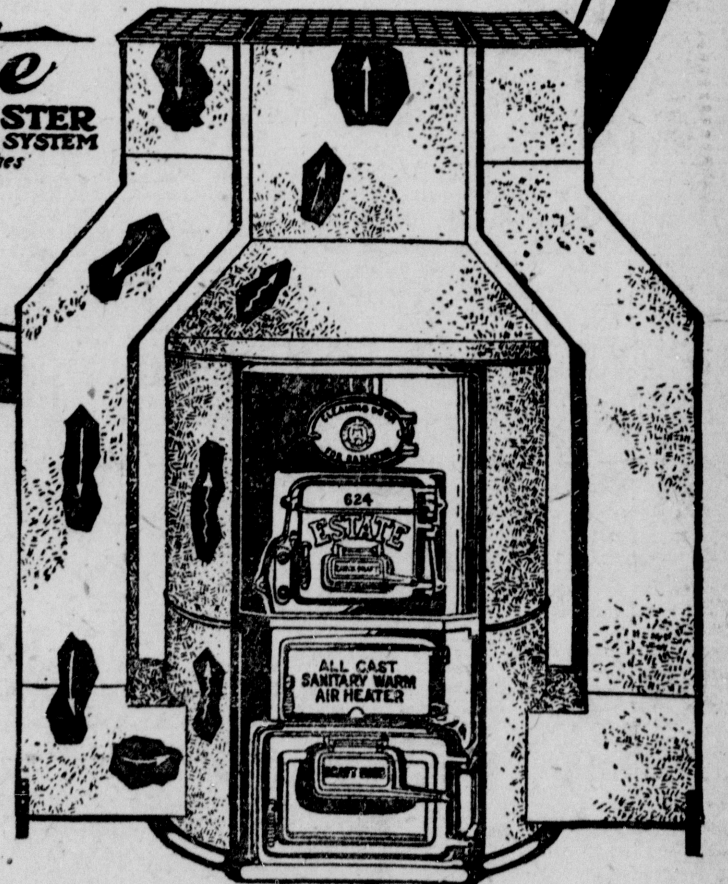

This ended the conversation about Tony but it left me feeling happy once more—absolutely oblivious to the black looks of Mr. Betts and Miss Wilcox.
